

Conference Programme 2015

Saturday 7 - Sunday 8 November 2015

Venue: Radisson Blu Hotel, Meridian Gate, Bute Terrace, CF10 2FL, Cardiff

Citizenship and Identity:

The role and identities of teachers of citizenship in a time of change

The aims of this conference are to:

- explore and discuss the role and identities of teachers of citizenship in a time of educational change
- consider the role of teachers in relation to migration, radicalisation, national identity debates and changing relations between jurisdictions
- bring together from across the five nations policy makers, practitioners and other stakeholders with an interest in citizenship and values education
- encourage new thinking and learning about citizenship and promote dialogue across country partnerships
- explore the use of different pedagogies including digital technologies as effective teaching tools for teaching citizenship.

During the conference we encourage those of you who tweet to follow @FiveNationsNet and use our Twitter hashtag #5NN

Saturday 7 November 2015		Room
From 11.00	Registration
11.45-12.45	Informal country group activity "The ideal citizenship educator?" Participants use a range of strategies to build a picture of 'an ideal citizenship educator' and discuss the skills, subject and professional knowledge that teachers of citizenship require. During discussion draw out barriers/challenges this entails.	Conference suite: Azzurro II
12.45-13.45	Lunch	Filini Restaurant, Radisson Blu Hotel
13.45-14.00	Welcome to the conference and programme orientation Liz Moorse and Deepa Shah	Conference suite: Azzurro II
14.00- 14.40	Keynote address: 'Citizenship Education and Inspection' Ann Keane, former Chief Inspector of Schools, Estyn, Wales With time for reflections and questions	Conference suite: Azzurro II
14.40-15.45	Workshops and Seminars 1 Participants choose from sessions	Breakout suites
15.45-16.00	Refreshments break	Outside suites
16.00-17.00	'A road to radicalisation and challenging extremism through curriculum interventions' Barrie Phillips and Omer Williams	Conference suite: Azzurro II

17.00-17.15	Reflections on the day A chance for participants to share reflections on the day, learning points and issues, questions or challenges raised.	Conference suite: Azzurro II
19.00	Pre-dinner drinks (pay as you go)	Restaurant Bar
19.30	Conference dinner	Filini Restaurant, Radisson Blu Hotel

Sunday 8 November 2015		Room
09.00-10.15	Seminars/workshops 2 Participants choose from sessions	Breakout suites
10.15-10.30	Tea and coffee	Outside suites
10.30-11.30	Key note: 'Who is the citizenship educator?' Jamie Kelsey Fry	Conference suite: Azzurro II
11.30-12.45	Guided discussions in country groups Re-visit opening activity, consider the barriers and challenges and identify how these can be addressed, drawing on learning from the conference.  Opportunity to hear from FNDP projects	Breakout suites
12.45-13.00	Final plenary with closing comments from Ivor Sutherland (Gordon Cook Foundation)	Conference suite: Azzurro II
13.00- 14.15	Lunch and conference close	Filini Restaurant, Radisson Blu Hotel