

1916 Film Project: To promote citizenship education in our school community

FIVE NATIONS NETWORK

PROJECT OVERVIEW AND AIMS:

Research, delivery and execution of a film to commemorate the 1916
Rising -

- To create understanding, awareness and knowledge of what citizenship means.
- To help foster an appreciation of democracy, identity, justice, equality, freedom, authority.
- To enhance and develop skills and aptitudes through effective forms of learning.

ACTION:

- TY students attended a three day film making workshop where they created and produced a short film titled 'Till Death Do Us Part'.
- This involved a cross curricular approach involving the Art, History, English, Irish, CSPE, Music and Admin. Departments.
- Wider links with the community were forged in order to further support the project.

On location in Mong Church!

'Tír gan teanga, tír gan anam'.

Padraig Pearse

'Equality was definitely not around in Ireland during the 1916 Rising'.

Maeve Fortune, TY Student

IMPACT:

- Students demonstrated an increased knowledge and understanding of citizenship.
- Students developed an appreciation of the evolution of our Irish state and a greater awareness of the values important to citizens.
- Students learned to work effectively and creatively together, producing a film which will remain as a legacy within our school and become an educational resource. To view film go to:

<http://borrisvocationalschool.ie>

CONTACT:

